

UNIK ON THE MOVE!

5th edition; May 2018

UNIK ON THE MOVE! STRENGTHENING NETWORKS!

This May 2018, the University of Kibungo is blessed to host a meeting convened by the Ministry of Agriculture and Animal Resources (MINAGRI). The meeting gathers MINAGRI affiliated Institutions (NAEB, and RAB) and Agriculture Colleges among which UNIK, UR-CAVM, and INES. This consultative meeting aims at exploring areas of collaboration between MINAGRI and agriculture higher learning institutions.

Participants from MINAGRI and Agriculture Universities in a consultative meeting

We are also honored to be represented in the 3rd Annual AFRICA TESOL Conference themed “Expanding Networks, Overcoming Challenges” which was held in Dakar, Senegal. Dr. Muhayimana Theophile presents a paper entitled “Challenges Related to the World Englishes Usage in Multilingual Education Settings”.

Dr. Muhayimana Theophile presents a paper in a conference at Dakar/Senegal

Beginning from April 2018, UNIK started meeting its alumni in order to build a strong network. This May 2018, the move continues. At its campuses at Rulindo and Ngoma and at Rwamagana site, UNIK gathers alumni and discusses possibilities of joining the UNIK Association, a platform from which both UNIK and its Alumni will benefit. At one UNIK Alumni meeting in Ngoma, District Officials join

As we go global, we expand our networks and opportunities in search for excellence. In this regard, UNIK VC, DVC/A, and TQM participates in the 8th Annual Forum of the East African Higher Education Quality Assurance held in Kigali-Rwanda (May 7-10, 2018). The Theme of the Forum reads “ICT for Quality Higher Education and Expanded Access - Leveraging Technology for Effective QA Systems in East Africa”.

The 8th EAQAN Forum held in Kigali

The National Commission for the Fight against Genocide (CNLG) organizes a talk at the University of Kibungo this May 2018. The talk aims at mobilizing both staff and students to participate in the upcoming “Café Litéraire” which will gather all Researchers and individuals writing about the Genocide against Tutsi.

Staff and students attending CNLG talk

As it has been in its practice since 2016, UNIK organized a workshop for English Teachers in Ngoma District this month. This attracts teachers in profession and Teachers to be. It is part of capacity building and lifelong learning.

Workshop of Ngoma Community of Practice for English Teachers at UNIK

In view of continuous partnership and collaboration and following a training that was provided to one of UNIK staff by Rwanda-Israel Horticulture Center of Excellence (HCoE), the latter organises a follow up visit to the Faculty of Agriculture. Mrs. Jeannette Mukankuruziza, the Lecturer who received training showcases how she implements what she learnt from the training. She shows vegetable nurseries that she is developing at Musamvu site both for increasing vegetable growth and student practice.

At Musamvu site, Mrs. Jeannette shows HCoE members trial vegetable nurseries

The University of Kibungo (UNIK) is indebted to whoever passes
sleepless nights in order to contribute to its mission of serving the community.

Together we can!